Since the early 1990's, Thompson's Gallery has always had strong ties with the country north of our English border, and we believe there is no better time for a revival of Thompson's historically popular 'The Scottish Exhibition', which we are excited to share with our clients to celebrate the opening of our newest gallery in Harpenden and as our first official, curated show. Once a staple in Thompson's Gallery's annual calendar, the Scottish Exhibition is a chance to showcase the very best in Scottish artistic talent.

This exhibition will be spotlighting our core list of Scottish artists which has come to exist over the past four decades, plus an array of talents new to us, curated as a statement on the consistent strength of Scottish art today.

CALEDONIAN boasts an eclectic mix of subject matter and styles, from depictions of well-known Scottish coastal scenes, colourful still life and whimsical wonderlands, which are all united by an overarching, quintessentially Scottish feel and sensitivity.

More painting and sculptures are available by each artist, the entire exhibition catalogue can be viewed online: www.thompsonsgallery.co.uk

All works are for sale upon receipt of this catalogue.
